

What is this TXT Fondue program about?

What is the House Feast Network? Explore the Bible together and discover how in this day, King Jesus wants to work through His Holy Spirit, who lives and works in His followers.

This TXT Fondue is different from others

In this TXT Fondue, things are a little bit different. Page 2 contains a proclamation describing a unique kind of Biblical gathering at home, which we call a house feast. You've got to experience that some time; it's a completely different way of being a church together.

Together, you will complete this proclamation using Bible verses. It helps if everyone has a Bible to look up the verses. If there are no Bibles available, then let the opposite team read the verses to you from their answer sheet.

Two teams take turns in filling in the blanks. Team 1 is red, team 2 is blue. The answers can be derived from the Bible verses. The team that needs to supply the answer, has one minute to do so. Each team has the answers for the other team on their answer sheet. This way, they can judge whether the blank has been filled in correctly. In that case, the other team receives one point.

The first letter of each word is already provided, and the number of underscores indicates the amount of letters the word is composed of.

Referee

Like the referee ensures that the rules of play are respected, the elder in a house feast supervises that all that is said remains Biblical (1 Timothy 4:16). There are just two rules: if someone says something unbiblical, the elder takes corrective action, like a referee in football issues a yellow card. In case of sin, he intervenes, comparable to a red card.

What is the House Feast Network?

Those who are in the house feasts intend to reach all people in their own network who have not yet been reached with the gospel.

Networking

Of course you are curious to see how other house feasts do things. You wish to pay each other visits, help each other, and in any case you celebrate a large feast together, three times a year. To facilitate this, we have set up a House Feast Network group on Facebook: facebook.com/HouseFeastNetwork. Elders can exchange their experiences at facebook.com/groups/Oudsten.

Share impressions

House feasts support one another by continually sharing photos in "The House Feast Network". House feasts unite because of this. We prefer that the ambience pictures you share do not intrude people's privacy.

Titus 1:6–9: "An elder must be blameless, faithful to his wife, a man whose children believe and are not open to the charge of being wild and disobedient. Since an overseer manages God's household, he must be blameless—not overbearing, not quick-tempered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not pursuing dishonest gain. Rather, he must be hospitable, one who loves what is good, who is self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined. He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it."

18. too small

22. ministries

1 Corinthians 12:28: "And God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, of helping, of guidance, and of different kinds of tongues."

24. not about words, but about power

1 Corinthians 4:20: "For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power."

Keep asking: "Where does it say so in the Bible?"
